Baby Rambler Roses

Baby Rambler Roses are truly the ideal bedding plant, as they bloom prolifically all summer, and unlike the ordinary bed of annuals, once planted they become a permanent feature, increasing in beauty year after year. Plan a bed of Baby Rambler Roses this coming spring, in place of the Geranium bed or bed of other annuals you usually plant. You will find it more beautiful, more satisfactory, and next year it will be there in its increasing beauty, without the labor and expense of re-planting.

A surplus of Baby Rambler Roses, in reds, whites, and pinks, enables us to make a very special price on this desirable class of Rose for early Spring delivery, fine bushy 2 to 3 year old field grown plants that regularly retail at 50c to 75c each, specially priced at 39c each, 10 for only $3.50, if you place your order for early spring delivery, NOW.

TYCKO ZANG

This great new variety will add beauty and distinction to your garden, the color is a beautiful shade of clear salmon pink with a brilliance unsurpassed in any other Gladiolus. The flowers usually measure 6 inches in diameter; has white throat faintly dotted with deep cerise. Several blooms are open at once and well placed on an always straight spike. You will want this glorious new variety in quantities.

$1.29 Per Dozen—$8.50 Per 100

FLAMING SWORD

Flaming Sword is another very unusual Gladiolus, and has also been awarded the first class certificate. It is very tall, having a straight spike with ten or more well set flowers open at one time. The color is a beautiful brilliant red slightly overlaid with orange; a splendid flower, unusual and distinctive, and very early. Another high priced variety featured in this folder at popular prices.

69c Per Dozen—$4.89 Per 100

WAR

War, one of the newer Gladioli, has recently come into great popularity and demand and deservedly so. It is one of the later varieties and is entirely distinctive in coloring, being a beautiful deep velvety blood red—a color that has taken years of patience and hybridizing to obtain, and one that is so beautiful in the garden, or in decorations in the home, that you cannot afford to be without it. War regularly sells at $2.00 to $3.00 per dozen. Another sample of Growers' Sales Company's values, at 79c per dozen.

12c Each—100 for $10.00

Red Japanese Barberry

The red leaved Japanese Barberry has leaped into tremendous popularity since its introduction a few years ago. The foliage is the same as the Green leaved Barberry except in color, a rich lustrous, bronzy red, similar to the richest red leaved Maples. Plant it in a sun location, the coloring becomes more brilliant and gorgeous as the season advances, and in the Fall changes to vivid orange, scarlet and red shades. Its only disadvantage has been its high price. Even now the plants are selling regularly at 50c to 75c each, but fortunately we are able to offer a limited supply of nice plants, about 18 inches, at only 29c each. You can now plant Red Japanese Barberry liberally.

Now Only 29c Ea.
